

>> Is your cat purrfect?

If you think your cat is perfect in every way, why not give him the opportunity to have his five minutes of fame? Whether your cat is a special friend, a hero, has triumphed over adversity, shown exceptional loyalty or is simply a perfect cat in his own way, Seven Seas Pet and Animal Health Care wants to hear from you.

Application forms for its Kitzyme Purrfect Cat of the Year award are available from pet shops, or you can download the entry information from the website.

The winner will receive a special Kitzyme Purrfect Cat of the Year Award, which will be engraved, together with £500 Thomson holiday vouchers. Five runners-up will receive £100 worth of Argos vouchers — plus some goodies for your cat.

For more information, contact Debbie Harness on 01482 716476 or visit www.petshealthcare.com The deadline for entries is January 31, 2008.

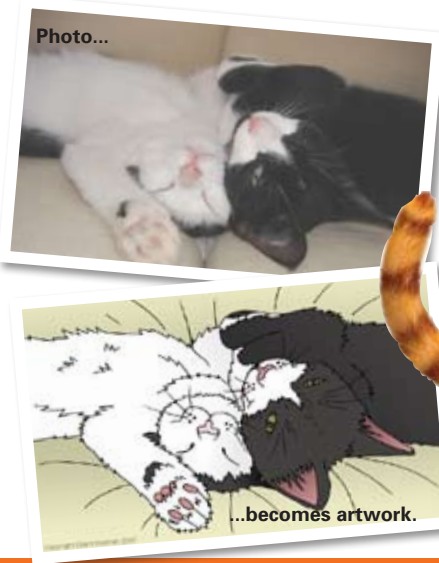

CHEEKY ART

If you have a cheeky cat in your life, what better way to capture his personality than with a pet caricature?

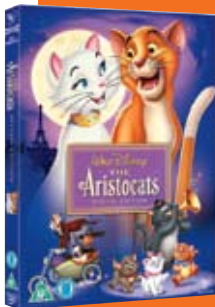

Kiernan Productions specialises in cartoon-inspired art by artist Claire Kiernan that make unique keepsakes and gifts.

More traditional portrait pieces are also available — there are original paintings, prints, as well as the opportunity to commission. All the company needs is three quality photographs and a bit of background information on your pet to help inject his true personality.

Prices for prints start at £21.50 and £65 for original paintings. For more information, visit www.cartoonarts.co.uk or tel. 0121 351 3061.

Return of the Aristocats

Who could forget Thomas O'Malley, Duchess or Berlioz, to name just a few? Well now we can fall in love with The Aristocats all over again, thanks to a new special edition DVD.

The timeless Disney classic has been jazzed up with new digital transfer and special DVD bonus features so fans can take a trip down memory lane with toe-tapping songs and exciting misadventures.

Originally made in 1970 and the last animated film to be approved by Walt Disney himself, The Aristocats' combination of posh pets and cool cats continues to captivate audiences of all ages.

For those who don't know the story, The Aristocats tells the tale of an aristocratic feline family who find themselves catnapped and stranded, the victim's of a plot by their owner's butler to cheat them out of their inheritance. They must find their way back to their home and owner with the help of alley cat charmer Thomas O'Malley to help foil the butler's plan.

Available from February 4, 2008, the DVD will be priced at £19.99.

Watch this space for a fabulous Aristocats competition!

Puss in Boots fights back

Whether you caught Puss in Boots at the cinema earlier this year or not, you'll be pleased to know that Shrek The Third is now available on DVD.

Join the swashbuckling cat on another all-new royal adventure as he helps Shrek, along with Donkey, to find the rightful heir to the throne when his frog-in-law suddenly croaks.

Antonio Banderas is of course back as the voice of Puss In Boots and the DVD also features a swamp full of bonus material.

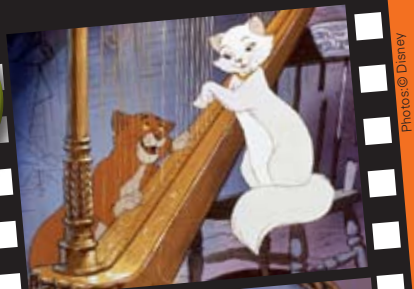

Priced at £19.99, Shrek The Third is available in stores now.

* Your Cat has three DVDs to give away. For a chance of winning one, send your entry marked Your Cat/Shrek to the usual address.
